CHAMPAGNE AND SPARKLING WINES

1900	Asti Spumante Dolce, Araldica (Italy) Refreshing sparkling wine from the north of Italy with a touch of sweetness to the fruit. A refreshing alternative to stickier dessert wines.	N.V.	£23
1920	Blanc de Blancs, Méthode Traditionelle, Corney & Barrow (France) Bottle fermented, with a blend of Ugni Blanc, Chenin Blanc, Chardonnay and Colombard, to give a stylish, delicate wine, with crisp citrus and biscuity notes and a fine mousse.	N.V.	£25
1910	Prosecco, Le Couture, Treviso (Italy) Fresh, light and elegant with impressive complexity of flavour, this wine shows aromas and flavours of orchard fruit, citrus, almonds and white flowers, with a soft mousse and beautiful complexity of flavour.	N.V.	£26
1930	Guy de Chasse, Champagne Grand Cru, Brut (France) Only Grand Cru rated vineyards are used to make this family House Champagne. 20% of the blend is made up of older wine to add complexity and depth.	N.V.	£38
1925	Nyetimber, Classic Cuvée, from West Chiltington, Sussex, Brut (England) Superb! Chosen by the Queen for her Jubilee Celebrations. Made in the Champagne style from Chardonnay, Pinot Noir & Meunier. Rich and creamy, showing balance & complexity.	2003	£43
1960	Rosé, Lenoble, Champagne, Brut (France) A wine of delicate salmon pink colour, fine bubbles, a light sparkling foam and a fruity nose with scents of red fruits. Elegant, rounded light and well balanced on the palate.	2004	£46
1940	Moët & Chandon, Brut Imperial (France) Moët & Chandon became the biggest by being the best. Their Brut Imperial really shows why they continue to be hugely successful. Stylish & classy with a fine smooth mousse.	N.V.	£48
1980	Bollinger, Special Cuvée, Brut (France) Delicious, full bodied house style with creamy biscuity palate. The tiny bubbles burst on the palate releasing lovely rich fruit flavours and a smooth long finish.	N.V.	£54
1970	Veuve Clicquot, Vintage Reserve (France) Veuve-Clicquot's vintage is two-thirds Pinot Noir to one-third Chardonnay. Aged to perfection and offering great ripeness, depth and complexity of flavour.	1999	£67
1990	Dom Pérignon (France) Named after the monk from Hautvilliers Abbey who invented Champagne this is the ultimate in luxury. The original super cuvée and one of the very best.	1999/00	£128

WHITE WINES

1004	Sauvignon Blanc, Emiliana, Central Valley (Chile) Pale lemon in colour with hints of green. On the nose, the wine is aromatic, offering fresh floral and citrus notes. The palate has additional notes of tropical fruit and bright fresh acidity.	2009	£16
1890	Un-oaked Chardonnay, Emiliana, Central Valley (Chile) A lighter than usual style of Chardonnay. It has delicious aromas of apple, citrus and stone fruit on the nose followed by hints of peach and green apple on the palate.	2009	£18
1891	Chenin Blanc, Oude Berg, Paarl (South Africa) Lemony crispness and green apple flavours with ripe fruit, tempered by balancing acidity, give a mouth filling, yet refreshing palate.	2008	£18
1720	Piesporter Michelsberg, QbA, Mosel (Germany) From the banks of the Mosel, this gentle, fruity wine is a perfect blend of Riesling and Muller-Thurgau grapes, both of which are aromatic and characterful.	2008	£18
1600	Rioja Blanco, Valliciergo, Viura (Spain) White Rioja made from 100% Viura grapes. It is fresh, light and aromatic, presenting delicate floral notes, orchard fruits and hints of gooseberry. There is an attractive mineral definition.	2008	£19
1660	Sauvignon Blanc, Rooiberg Winery, Robertson (South Africa) Aromatic, crisp Sauvignon with hints of lemon and lime; more subdued and subtle than many New World versions.	2009	£19
1220	Pinot Gris, Valée de Uco, Lurton, Mendoza (Argentina) A lovely fresh, crisp Pinot, with vibrant fresh fruit - a wine of real character, rich in stone fruit, fresh, with delicate raisin notes.	2009	£20
1780	Pinot Grigio, Sanvigilio, Provincia di Pavia (Italy) A medium-bodied wine, fresh and lively made for easy drinking. On the palate it is delicate and very clean with refreshing acidity on the finish.	2008	£20
1740	Viognier, Commissioner's Block, South Eastern Australia Vibrant tropical fruit with notes of melon, passion fruit and a refreshing citrus acidity. The initial fruitiness turns into a delightful dry finish.	2008	£21
1560	Muscadet-sur-lie, Domaine des Herbauges, Loire Valley (France) The grapes were picked at full ripeness to give maximum flavour and after a cool fermentation; the wine was matured on its lees before being bottled "Sur Lie" giving a refreshing and natural spritz.	2008	£22
1570	Vouvray, Château Gaudrelle, Sec, Loire Valley (France) A medium-dry wine with ripe, concentrated fruit, which compliments the slightly richer seafood and white meat dishes. Made from the Chenin Blanc grape.	2007	£23
1850	Chardonnay, Brightview, Simon Hackett, Barossa Valley (Australia) This classic dry white has a golden colour showing powerful and distinctive varietal flavours with the added complexity of subtle and perfectly integrated vanilla oak on the finish.	2007	£24
1875	Riesling, 3 Stones, Hawke's Bay, (New Zealand) This delicious Riesling has typical notes of white peach & limes. The concentrated palate has a wonderful intensity of grapefruit balanced by cleansing mineral acidity.	2007	£24
1430	Macon Lugny, "les Genievres" Louis Latour, Burgundy (France) From the ever reliable house of Latour. Well defined, buttery lemon bouquet with lots of creamy rich fruit on the palate.	2007/8	£25
1330	Côtes du Rhône Blanc, Château du Trignon, Rhône Valley (France) A blend of Rousanne & Voignier grapes. Complex but delicate nose which expresses aromatic flavours such as citrus fruits, peach and apricot. The attack is powerful, rich but well-balanced with freshness.	2006	£25

1630	Gewurztraminer, Cleebourg, Alsace (France) A blend of delicate honeyed fruit and lychees. Lightly spiced, just off-dry, this is a good wine with cheese, terrines and spicy food.	2007/8	£25
1840	Unoaked Chardonnay, RockBare, McClaren Vale (Australia) A lovely fresh oak free Chardonnay produced by a young forward thinking wine maker. A seriously good example of this fruit driven varietal.	2007/8	£26
1410	Saint-Véran, Moulin du Pont, Domaine Auvigue, Burgundy (France) A delicious oak aged dry white, sourced from chalk rich vineyards which tower above the famous towns of Pouilly and Fuissé. It has a full, ripe, buttery character with a fresh and supple balance.	2005/6	£26
1790	Gavi di Gavi, Nuovo Quadro, Piemonte (Italy) From one of the best vineyards within the commune of Gavi. A lively fresh dry white with hints of apple and pear, made from North West Italy's classic grape variety, Cortese.	2008	£27
1870	Sauvignon Blanc, Eradus, Marlborough (New Zealand) A very mineral New Zealand Sauvignon, where the long growing season produces a fresh & herbaceous wine with some nettly notes. A lovely fragrant wine reflecting the brilliant light quality in Marlborough.	2008	£27
1590	Sancerre, Domaine Gérard Morin, Loire Valley (France) Rich & aromatic Sauvignon Blanc from one of the finest limestone sites. Firmly structured after extended ageing on the lees, it demonstrates a blackcurranty richness and a complex zesty finish.	2007/8	£29
1580	Pouilly-Fumé, 'Les Berthiers' - Domaine Landrat et Guyollet, Loire Valley (France) This wine is elegant and well balanced with a light smoky aroma. It is wonderfully rich, with aromas of nettles, gooseberry on the palate, balanced by good weight of lemony acidity and a full flinty finish.	2007	£30
1460	Chablis, Domaine N&G Fèvre, Burgundy (France) The nose is intense with peach, pear and citrus aromas balanced with a very distinct minerality. The palate is rich and intense with a very nice mineral balance.	2007	£30
1865	Chardonnay, Mt. Difficulty, Central Otago (New Zealand) Stone-fruit characters compete with grapefruit, whilst the palate is defined by its minerality. Mt. Difficulty has harnessed the brutal terrain of Otago to produce one of New Zealand's premium wines.	2004	£31
1340	Châteauneuf-du-Pape Blanc, Domaine du Grand Tinel, Rhône Valley (France) This complex and exotic blend of Grenache Blanc, Rousanne and Marsanne varieties offers a serious alternative to white Burgundy as a full-bodied accompaniment to fine foods.	2004	£34
1470	Chablis, 1er Cru Vaillons, Domaine Vincent Damp, Burgundy (France) This has a classy, elegant nose reflected on the palate. From vines between 20 and 25 years old, this is very mineral and briny, with remarkable vivacity allied to a certain richness.	2007	£35
1480	Pouilly-Fuissé, Vieilles Vignes, Maison Auvigue, Burgundy (France) In the village of Charnay, the family run company of Auvigue produces a range of exquisite wines. Concentrated old vine fruit with creamy, honeyed notes and silky texture.	2006/7	£36
1440	St Aubin 1er Cru, en Remilly, Domaine Olivier Leflaive, Burgundy (France) An attractive green-gold in colour, with a delicious nose, poised and fresh with ripe apple fruit, lime zest & passion fruit. Luscious and honeyed, this is toasted, creamy and layered - a lovely wine, finishing long.	2006/7	£39
1450	Puligny Montrachet, les Meix, Olivier Leflaive, Burgundy (France) Bright and alluring, it has aromas of orchard fruit layered with nuts and vanilla cream, complemented by a stony minerality – wonderfully focussed and stylish.	2006/7	£44
1345	Condrieu, La Bonnette, René Rostaing, Rhône Valley (France) This beautiful wine is made from the Viognier grape and has an amazing peach and almond blossom bouquet and an exotic creamy rich palate. The finish though is beautifully dry.	2002	£59

RED WINES
