The Millstream nestles in the heart of Old Bosham, an historic village on the shores of Chichester Harbour, combining the elegance of a small English country house with the character and charm of an eighteenth century malthouse cottage.

The bar offers a cosy fireside setting in which to relax. On warm days a door opens onto the lawns where you can sit beneath a sunshade and listen to the chatter of the ducks.

The restaurant, overlooking the pretty gardens, offers a varied selection of modern British dishes, prepared with the best available fresh, seasonal, local produce, which are complemented by a list of fine wines from an established cellar.

Each enchanting bedroom has been attractively styled to enhance its individual character and outlook. All have en-suite facilities, flat-screen television, wi-fi internet access, radio/CD alarm clock, tea & coffee making facilities, direct dial telephone, wall safe, trouser press and hairdryer.

The charming sitting room, with its deep cushioned armchairs, grand piano, bowls of freshly cut flowers and tranquil atmosphere, is the ideal place to meet up with friends over afternoon tea or an aperitif, to play a quiet game of cards or just settle down and while away the hours with a good novel.

Today Bosham is a well known sailing village, but its history dates back to the Roman times when it was a fishing port. It has a fine Saxon church; legend has it that King Canute attempted to turn back the tide here and it is featured in the Bayeux tapestry. Bosham is an ideal centre for exploring the wealth of history and natural beauty, which abounds the surrounding area.

Visit Chichester with its Cathedral and Festival Theatre or one of the famous historic houses and archaeological sites. Alternatively, enjoy a round of golf or a bracing walk along the South Downs with stunning views of the countryside.
